

2 Tick box assessments - Age 3-7 years

---

- Poor balance. Difficulty in running, jumping or riding a bike
- Hands tend to flap about when running
- Tires easily when standing for a long time
- Very flexible finger or other joints
- Poor hand eye coordination. Difficulty with catching and throwing
- Tendency to fall, trip or bump into things
- Poor at two handed tasks such as cutting out with scissors or using knife and fork
- Never crawled properly
- Difficulty with dressing, especially with buttons and laces
- Tends to use either hand for some skills.
- May repeat things that he/she has heard rather than making up own sentences.
- Very sensitive to light, especially bright lights
- Very sensitive to loud noise
- Very sensitive to sitting on hard surfaces or wearing rough fabrics
- Over or under sensitive to touch and pain
- Over or under sensitive to smell or taste
- Very poor sense of time
- Difficulty in organizing own world
- Poor memory for what he/she hears and difficulty in following instructions
- Easily distracted
- Tends to be messy and frequently loses items
- Slow to finish a task
- Difficulty in joining in with other children's activities
- Finds it hard to make or keep friends
- Gets very frustrated when he/she does not get what he/she wants straightaway
- Hates changes in routine and gets very stressed when this happens
- Refuses to do tasks which he/she finds hard
- Has problems sleeping, especially in a dark room
- Often virtually fearless when climbing or jumping
- Tends to draw by drawing around the outside edge and then filling it in with color, pattern or detail
- Avoids playing with jigsaw like toys
- Finds it difficult to write letters or numbers
- Throws tantrums when stressed
- Can be completely fearless when climbing or jumping
- Very active and hates sitting still

Total out of 35